RE: Your Presentation to M&L Marketing and Management
Summer 2009 Seminar

Dear Stephen:

I wanted to express my gratitude for your excellent presentation to our group. To a person, every single attendee with whom I talked following your presentation was extremely complementary and appreciative. We have been conducting these seminars for over 15 years and we have had a great number of speakers and presenters during that time. As the moderator my main concern with presenting speakers such as yourself is not knowing whether the speaker will be able to hold the attention of our attendees. Your presentation was interesting, dynamic, informative, and captivating. Despite being the last presenter of the afternoon every single attendee stayed for the entire presentation.

Again, thank you very much for such a great presentation. We look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely yours,
